

Pirate Impact Capital is looking for an

Investment Intern

About us

Pirate Impact is the family office of Fabian and Ferry Heilemann. We focus on stage-agnostic investing in climate tech & social impact companies in the EU/US and are driven by the ambition to systematically transform our economy towards impact capitalism. We aim to inspire like-minded citizens, entrepreneurs, and investors and believe in the power of collaboration. You can find out more about us on <http://www.pirate.io>.

Why join?

We are at a critical time in our history. Climate change has become the biggest threat to our planet and future generations. Social injustice and inequality are increasing.

With our family office, we are looking to create an enormous positive impact on the planet and society, turning the challenges we are facing into an opportunity to create a better future.

We are looking for an impact rockstar who is driven by creating a positive impact, who is seeking an internship with high responsibility in a flexible, international, and welcoming work environment, who is highly motivated and has an affinity for detailed analysis and numbers, and who simply wants to support our mission and make a difference.

Your Responsibilities

- Help execute our investment strategy, identifying the most promising ventures within our key impact investing areas, incl. deal screening (call and/or meet with founders, evaluate opportunities) and documentation of deal flow (summarize call notes, enter deals into CRM).
- Conduct market research and analyze market trends to help identify new investment trends and opportunities in the impact entrepreneurship ecosystem.
- Perform due diligence, incl. 1) gathering information from target companies and relevant references, customers, and industry experts, 2) researching potential competitors as well as evaluating the target company's technology & IP and overall positive impact, 3) supporting with financial/valuation analysis, impact assessments, and validation of hypotheses, and 4) help preparing internal investment memos.
- Attend conferences to meet entrepreneurs and build relationships within the ecosystem to identify new investment opportunities.

Qualifications & profile

- University degree from a top school and first professional experience (internships, working student positions)
- Knowledge of current trends & developments in the impact investing scene, with focus on technologies & levers to combat climate change & environmental degradation as well as promoting social equality
- Outstanding analytical and research skills and orientation for details
- Strong affinity for the venture capitalist, startup, and impact investment scene
- Independent, solution-oriented thinker and worker, team player with an entrepreneurial, creative problem-solving and self-starter mindset
- Excellent and emphatic communicator (written and verbal)
- Ability to work and prioritize effectively in a fast-paced environment and manage many parallel tasks
- Mission alignment on impact and sustainability that can be seen in behavior and decision making
- Full professional proficiency in English as a must, fluent in German as a nice to have

Your package

- Competitive salary
- Possibility to work from home or in co-working space in Berlin
- Opportunity to work with an amazing team striving to create an enormous impact for the planet and society as well as in the investment and startup community
- Access to a gigantic network in the startup, venture, and sustainability ecosystem
